What does your event look like

The McKay Girls with Hi-Vis event aims to captivate and enlighten young women to the various career possibilities within the electrotechnology industry. The event also serves as an opportunity to showcase the McKay group of companies, emphasizing the inclusivity, and diverse array of opportunities available for women across our company's. In order to sustain the attendees' interest and active participation, we have arranged for three hands-on activities throughout the day alongside presentations from various women within McKay working in different careers.
