MC Temporary Traffic Management (TTM): Mobile Operations

This course is designed for people who perform mobile operations in temporary traffic management and who contribute to team performance and demonstrate safe work practice under the supervision of a mobile lead or supervisor.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

This course covers the knowledge and skills required to work in temporary traffic management mobile operations.

It covers:

- Identifying situations that may cause harm within the road reserve.
- Understanding vehicle requirements, risks and fit for purpose mobile operation requirements.
- Knowledge in health and safety of mobile operations personnel and raising safety concerns.
- Communicating changing onsite conditions.
- Knowledge and skills in safe operation and positioning of a vehicle for mobile operations.

Graduates of this micro-credential may be employed as pilot and shadow drivers, truck mounted attenuator (TMA) drivers, grader/sweeper drivers, cyclic maintenance drivers, working in a temporary traffic management team.

HOW THE COURSE IS DELIVERED

This course is delivered through a combination of online learning and assessment and an on-job practical assessment.

Learners are supported by a Customer Service Account Manager and assessor throughout their training.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

To enrol for this course, trainees must already work in temporary traffic management, be exposed to the skills covered, and have access to a temporary traffic management worksite to complete on-job practical assessments.

TRAINING PATHWAYS

Graduates who hold this micro-credential will be able to continue their training within temporary traffic management by completing further Level 3 temporary traffic management micro-credentials.

WHAT IS A MICRO-CREDENTIAL?

A micro-credential is a short, NZQA-recognised training course where you can earn between 5-40 credits when successfully completed. Micro-credential courses either lead to a qualification or focus on specialised skills and knowledge that top-up a full qualification certificate, or apprenticeship programme.
